IT TOOLS

Identification glossary

- IDUL: Identifiant Unique ULaval, it consists of a maximum of 8 characters and is generally made up of 5 letters followed by 0 to 3 digits. It is used to access many of Université Laval's IT services.
- Password (NIP): it is used as a password in several Université Laval systems. In particular, it is used to access monPortail.
- NI: Numéro d'identification, it consists of 9 digits and is indicated on your official documents. The NI appears on the Université Laval identity card issued at the beginning of the session.

For more information: <https://www.ulaval.ca/technologies-de-linformation/identifiants-et-mot-de-passe>

Wireless Internet (Wi-Fi)

- All students registered at Université Laval are automatically subscribed to the eduroam or eduroam2 wireless network.
- Access is available 24 to 48 hours after registration.
- The UL_Visiteur_Guest and UL_Visiteurs_Guest2 networks are available to everyone without a password, but the eduroam and eduroam2 wireless networks are preferable as they provide greater security.
- To access the wireless Internet network at Université Laval:
 1. Select eduroam or eduroam2 network
 2. Enter your IDUL@ulaval.ca
 3. Enter your password (PIN)
 4. If your phone requires network authentication, click on "Trust".

monPortail

- Digital learning environment providing centralized access to a range of learning-related services and information.
- In particular, this platform provides access to:
 - course registration
 - important study-related messages
 - communication and planning tools
 - course sites (course outlines, course materials, evaluation results, assignment submission, etc.)
- Accessible with your IDUL and PIN

Bienvenue sur monPortail

L'environnement numérique d'études de l'Université Laval

monPortail offre un accès centralisé à différents services
de l'Université tels que la demande d'admission, l'inscription aux cours, les sites de cours et la commande de documents officiels.

IDENTITY CARD AND PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Université Laval's identity card

- Following your registration, an important message will be sent to monPortail inviting you to submit a photo for the production of your ULaval identity card.
- If you have problems with the photo you have submitted, please go to the Registrar's Office (Jean-Charles-Bonenfant Pavilion, Library, 2nd floor, room 2440).
- To pick up your ID card:
 - The card will be virtual
 - Once the photo has been approved (a few days), you will be able to access it via monPortail and present it on an electronic device.

Laissez-passer universitaire (LPU) (Public transit pass)

- The LPU is your public transit card, giving you unlimited access to buses in Quebec City and Lévis, as well as to the ferry between the two cities.
- Mandatory and automatically billed to all full-time students (12 credits) enrolled in a regular program.
- Cost: $153.56 per session
- Valid from September 1 to April 30
- Summer session: use the LPU to purchase a reduced-rate pass.
- Exchange students can apply using the attestation received by e-mail.

How to get LPU?

Regular study program

- On monPortail:
 - Following approval of your photo for the ULaval ID card, go to the Services section of monPortail and follow the steps.
- To pick up the LPU: by mail 7-10 business days.
- To find out the consequences of a change to part-time study on the LPU, consult the dedicated page on the ULaval Website.

How to get LPU?

Exchange program

- Optional
- You will automatically receive an e-mail from the Registrar's Office confirming your registration.
- To obtain your LPU, present yourself with the attestation at the following location:
 - RTC Service Centre: 820 avenue Ernest-Gagnon, Quebec City.
 - $153.56 fees are due on site.
- For more information, visit the Website

Your studies

- Semester
 - 15 weeks
 - 3 sessions per year: fall, winter and summer
- Full-time studies
 - Minimum 12-credit enrolment for fall and winter sessions
 - 2nd research cycle and 3rd cycle: check with your academic advisor that your research credits give you full-time status.
- Credit
 - A 3-credit course = 3 hours of face-to-face or distance learning classes and 6 hours of personal work per week
 - 12 credits = 36 hours of work per week (1st cycle)
- Course outline
 - Objectives, evaluation methods, materials to be purchased, etc.
 - Detailed explanations during the first class

Your studies

- Fast-paced session from the first week of class
- No retake exams
- Autonomy in learning
- Be proactive!
- Contact with teaching staff

Pedagogical material

- Purchase of books and lecture notes at the Librairie Coop Zone
- New or used equipment, and book resale on LEXYA
- Student Facebook page (used books)
- ULaval library (book borrowing)

Plagiarism and intellectual property

Intellectual integrity is a fundamental value at Université Laval.

- Plagiarism can have serious consequences for your academic career (including exclusion from a program).
- Various training courses are available on MonPortail and the Université Laval library Website to avoid plagiarism.
- The BVE also offers you a presentation on this subject.

Cumulative average

The grade point average is calculated on a total of 4.33, which is equivalent to A+. To avoid exclusion from the program, you must maintain an average over 12 credits (one session) of more than:

- 1st cycle: 2.0/4.33 (C)
- 2nd cycle: 2.67/4.33 (B-)
- 3rd cycle: based on doctoral exam

 Please note: your program may have higher or more diversified pass requirements. These can be found on MonPortail, or in your progress report. Your academic advisor can also provide you with further information.

Important dates

- Semester: September 1 to December 21, 2025
 - Course starts: September 2
- Exam week: December 15 to 21, 2025
- Reading week: October 27 to 31, 2025
- Vacations:
 - September 1: Labor Day
 - October 13: Thanksgiving
 - December 5: University day off
- Payment of tuition fees:
 - Invoice available towards the end of September
 - Payment deadline: October 15

[University calendar
2025-2026](#)

Important dates

Course selection modification

- End of course modification period: September 9
- Withdrawal with refund: September 16 11.59 pm*
- Withdrawal without refund: November 11 11:59 pm*

Please note: When you withdraw from a course, whether with or without a refund, and your total number of credits falls below 12 for the semester, you lose full-time student status. This can have a number of consequences, including the loss of your right to work and your eligibility for certain scholarships.

<https://www.ulaval.ca/en/international/immigration/respecting-the-conditions-of-your-stay>

Language requirements

- French language requirement: Certain requirements may apply if French is not your mother tongue or if you have studied in another language.
- English language requirement: Some programs require a certain level of English.

We recommend that you take an English or French language test at the Language School at the start of your studies to avoid certain possible consequences:

- Delayed graduation
- Consequences on the possible renewal of your legal status in Canada

Contact your academic advisor or consult your progress report to verify the language requirements of your program of study!

Language tests: <https://www.flsh.ulaval.ca/en/ecole-langues/language-proficiency-tests>

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT STATUS AND THE AUTHORIZATION TO WORK

International student status

Under Quebec and Canadian law, certain conditions must be met:

- You must make your studies your principal activity and make reasonable progress in a timely manner. Throughout your studies, you must be enrolled full-time (minimum 12 credits) in all mandatory sessions of your program of study. Validate your full-time enrolment status with your academic advisor.
- Have health and hospitalization insurance for yourself and accompanying family members at all times.
- Respect the terms of the right to work.

International student status

- Always have valid immigration documents: If your studies continue beyond the expiry date of your legal documents, or if you change your course of study, you must renew your documents 3 to 6 months before they expire.
- As soon as you obtain a new CAQ or study permit, send it to the Registrar's Office.
- You should make scanned or photocopied copies of your legal documents and keep them in a safe place. Do not carry the originals around with you.
- Inform Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada of any change of educational institution.

For more information: <https://www.ulaval.ca/en/international/immigration/respecting-the-conditions-of-your-stay>

Authorization to work

- Upon arrival, the right to work begins on the first day of the session
- Make sure your study permit indicates that you are authorized to work in Canada.
- If you meet all the conditions, you can work on campus. You can also work up to 24 hours a week off-campus, with no time limit on school vacations.
- If you withdraw from a course during the semester and are no longer a full-time student (less than 12 credits), you must stop working immediately.

Please note:

To carry out one or more internships as part of your program of study at Université Laval, you must be in possession of an internship-coop work permit. The permit is free of charge.

For more information on the right to work:

- Visit our Website Working during your studies
- Join the conference Study permit holders: legal obligations and authorizations to work
- For exchange students, if you wish to work after your exchange, attend the conference Working or doing an internship in Canada after your student exchange program

Safe boating and water activities in natural environments

- I bring my PFD with me on water outings AND I wear it.
- I avoid using drugs and alcohol on the water.
- I plan my outings and give my itinerary to someone I trust.
- I analyze the water before venturing out and check the weather forecast.
- I respect the posted safety rules.

UNE BAIGNADE À LA MAISON ÇA SE PRÉPARE!

AVANT LA BAIGNADE, ASSUREZ-VOUS DE...

-  Apporter avec vous un téléphone. Il vous sera très utile pour appeler les secours en cas d'incident.
-  Avoir de quoi vous hydrater, surtout dans les périodes de grande chaleur.
-  Vous protéger du soleil. Appliquez de la crème solaire 30 minutes avant la baignade et portez des lunettes de soleil et un chapeau.
-  Avoir tout le nécessaire avec vous afin d'éviter de vous absenter durant la baignade.
-  Garder un dispositif de flottaison à proximité. Cela permet d'intervenir rapidement.
-  Établir des règles simples et claires. Cela permet d'éviter les incidents.
